Five Fun Things To Do For Labor Day

Labor Day is a special day where we pay tribute to the American workforce, recognizing and celebrating their valuable contributions and accomplishments. It was created by the labor movement and has been a federal holiday since 1894.

Recreational Water Safety

We wish you a fantastic September! Although summer is coming to an end, water activities are still going strong. Whether swimming, boating, or kayaking, staying safe while having fun in the water is important. As your personal injury lawyer, we're here to ensure that your water adventures are awesome and secure.

Recipe of the Month
Antipasto Skewers

Make these mini appetizers for a picnic or a party, or add them to a buffet table for guests to grab and go!

Ingredients:

- 20 cheese tortellini
- 1/2 cup Italian dressing
- 1 cup olives (20 pieces)
- 1/2 cup fresh basil leaves (20 pieces)
- 20 slices of salami or your choice of meat
- 1 pint grape tomatoes (20 pieces)
- 1 jar of marinated artichoke hearts (20 pieces) or any other pickled vegetable of choice
- 20 slices pepperoni
- 6 ounces cheddar cheese (or bocconcini mozzarella balls) (20 one-inch pieces)
- 20 cocktail picks (6-inch wooden skewers)

Instructions:

1. Cook tortellini according to package directions. Drain and rinse under cold water to stop the cooking process. Transfer to a bowl and toss with Italian dressing. Cover the bowl with plastic cling wrap and refrigerate for 15 minutes up to 2 hours. Drain the marinade.
2. Prepare the remaining ingredients and arrange them in front of you. Thread the items onto cocktail picks (or 6-inch wooden skewers), making sure to alternate between different colors and textures. Thread the items in the following order: black olive, basil, tortellini, salami, tomato, artichoke heart, pepperoni, black olive, and cheese.
3. Serve with olive oil and balsamic vinegar, a drizzle of balsamic glaze, or with pesto, if desired.

Notes:

How to store: These antipasto skewers are best eaten fresh but will stay in the fridge for 3-4 days in an airtight container. You can combine leftovers for a quick salad if you wish.

Make Ahead: Antipasto skewers can be made up to a day ahead. Don't drizzle with the glaze until it is ready to serve.
